COURT BOOKING POLICIES

Booking

- All reservations can be booked online or over the phone, the registered player is considered the primary player
 - Membership holders are able to book online without paying a fee, however are required to scan card upon entry. Non-members will need to pay at the time of booking.
- Names used for booking must be consistent with the players using the court
 - the name of the 2nd player should be added in the note section online and pay or scan card on arrival
- Each player can book a maximum of 2 court times, per week, one week in advance
 - Back-to-back court times for two players can only be booked during NON-PRIME time.
This is considered two primary reservations for the week and four admissions
 - Players may use as many same-day court times as are available each week (by checking online, phoning or by dropping in for same-day court use). This is not considered their weekly reservation
- If at the end of a court time, the next court is not booked, then the players may continue to play (we encourage members to swipe again to reflect statistics clearly)
- During prime time, each court time must have two or more admissions paid with these exceptions:
 - Same day- prime time: a single player may use same-day courts, and pay one admission, but may not book in advance
 - Non-prime time: a single player may reserve a court for practice and pay one admission
 - Family Full-Facility court Admission covers 1 court rental spot, if a second court is required then 2 additional full-price court Admissions are to be paid

Walley Ball and Racquet Ball

- Court 1 is available to be converted to be used for Walley Ball or Racquetball.
- Please arrive early to help set up the court, staff can assist but note that the court will not be set up for you on arrival
